Former Chief Hears of Dissatisfaction in Ranks of Organization of Which He Was Once Ruler—Makes Few Comments

AT RACES IN PARIS WITH OLD TRAINER.

Expresses Hope that Work Done by John Kelly and Himself Will Be Perpetuated-Inclined to Question Murphy's Critics.

Murray C. Danenbaum, the "insur-tent" Tammany leader of the Twentynigth District, who came home on the Campania in time to spend Christmas. oaw Richard Croker in Paris a week ago last Saturday. The former boss of Tammany was at the races with Eugene Leigh, his former racing trainer and picked three winners out of the

"Mr. Croker," Mr. Danenbaum declares, "is in fine physical shape. He in Dublin County, Ireland, to do som shopping. He was as ruddy as the typical Irish farmer. He has not changed, except that his hair and beard are now as white as this tableclot (Danenbaum was sitting in Delmonico's), and he is much more striking in appearance than he was when he wen away. He looks like a man who hasn't a care on earth. I think he was glad to see me, as he is all Americans,

"He asked about his old friends, call-ing them by name, and recalling many incidents of his association with them. He sent over more than a thousand Christmas cards to let them know he thought of them at Christmas time. You know he never forgot his friends at this season of the year.

"He was particularly anxious to learn shout Phil Dwyer, Phil Britt, Mattle Corbett, Sam Sanders, Max Zimmer-Corbett, Sam Sanders, Max Zimmermann, Billy Crerand, John Whalen, Ed Gilmore, Larry Delmour and a dozen others who have been his consistent friends in good weather and bad.

"I told him that there was a great deal of dissatisfaction with the present management of Tammany Hail. He seemed to be interested, but voluntered no comment, further than to say that he had received many letters from his loyal friends in New York conveying pretty much the Sams hiormation. He said he gave hitle of he

We Announce for Tomorrow The Great Semi-Annual Sale Of MEN'S SHIRTS

Collars, Cuffs, Nightshirts and Pajamas

Thousands of men buy their year's supplies of these Furnishings during this great movement. All masculine New York, and their thrifty wives, are interested in the great occasion that begins tomorrow morning. We've been preparing for it for months; and we've planned better, and accomplished more than ever in the past.

This entire movement is made up chiefly of the most staple merchandise in men's furnishing stocks. Every article is spic-span-new, specially made for us-made exactly our way, and of muslins and linens of our own selection-and yet the articles are sold at such prices as ordinarily would be expected only on odd lots and end-of-season stocks. That is why these Wanamaker White Sales are waited for by so many thousands of men, and so enthusiastically received when presented.

TOMORROW the splendid new stocks of White will be ready. Here are brief hints of the fine furnishings to be offered:
